Book Talk & Poetry Writing Workshop with Robin Caudell, author of Black Heel Strings: A Choptank Memoir

Join us on Thursday, July 16 to meet Robin Caudell, journalist, poet, U.S. Air Force veteran, and a founder of both the Plattsburgh Air Force Base Museum and the North Star Underground Railroad Museum. Robin will talk about her recently published memoir: Black Heel Strings: A Choptank Memoir. Her work fuses prose and poetry to vividly paint stories of growing up on Maryland's Chesapeake Bay and explores her family's shared experiences of slavery, racism, and resilience. The title of the memoir alludes to an unusual physical trait in Caudell's family line—a dark line extending up from the Achilles tendon, believed to indicate Indigenous ancestry. She uses the heel string to symbolize her lineage and the ties between generations through hardship, belonging, and recovery. After the book talk, we'll have a chance to learn and share ideas with Robin in a haiku writing workshop. This workshop is made possible by a grant from Poets & Writers, and you must register in advance. Please join us for an unforgettable evening with Robin Caudell.
