NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

I just want to give a big SHOUT OUT to our Friends for all that they continue to do for the library. I am so grateful to each one of you for sharing your time, talents, and skills to fulfill all the library needs. Enjoy the warmer weather and I'll see you at the library! -Robyn

Artisan of the Month
Sunshine Soaps

Come down to the library this month to check out handmade soaps and bath bombs made by Christina Dominy of Sunshine Soaps.
Christina has lived in Keeseville for 13 years, and enjoys volunteering at the ACK Civic Center, where she is helping coordinate the Craft and Vendor Fair coming up on June 6. Don't miss supporting Sunshine Soaps and other local vendors and artisans fundraising for the Civic Center.

FRIENDS OF THE KEESEVILLE FREE LIBRARY BOOK SHOP GRAND OPENING

The Friends of the Keeseville Free Library is proud to announce the grand opening of a used book shop in the rectory of the Keeseville Methodist Church on Front Street. There will be a sign out on the sidewalk when the shop is open as a reminder, but the plan is to be open on Wednesdays and every second Saturday of the month from 10-4 pm. Books will be sold by donation.
The grand opening is on Saturday, May 16, from 10 am to 4pm and features a bake sale with delicious treats baked by the Friends. Don't want to miss the chance to stock up on beach reads and literary treasures alike.

Kinusaiga Art with Jessie

Join Jessie Furnia to create art using Kinusaiga, a traditional form of Japanese patchwork meant to use leftover fabric scraps. Although the art looks intricately sewn, all you need for kinusaiga is wood, fabric, imagination and patience.
